Windſor, November 2.

THE following Addreſs from the Borough of Haſlemere, was preſented to Her Majeſty by George Woodroffe, Thomas Heath and John Fullham, Eſqrs; late Members of the ſaid Borough, in the Abſence of the preſent Ones.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

YOUR ancient Borough of Haſlemere, in Your County of Surry, humbly craves leave to preſent their due Acknowledgements for Your prudent and glorious Adminiſtration, illuſtrated in the whole Courſe of Your moſt auſpicious Reign, but eſpecially conſpicuous in the Steps You are making to an honourable Peace, peculiarly Advantageous to the Commerce of Great Britain, in proportion to the unequal Burden of the War.

This invaluable Bleſſing was more early ſought and ſincerely deſired by Your Sacred Majeſty, but ſecretly obſtructed by the Artifices of that Party that oppoſes it now, being by Principle ſuch Enemies to Monarchy, that the moſt endearing Condeſcenſions of the Beſt of Princes, cannot reduce them to a modeſt and mannerly Deportment to the Throne.

Of ſuch Conſequence was the ſeaſonable alteration of Your Miniſtry, and ſuch is the Luſtre of Your conſummate Conduct, that the greateſt Man on Earth reſigns the Acquiſitions of his former Arms, and lays all his Lawrels at Your Royal Feet.

The Honour he has lately done Your Majeſty, by an intire Confidence in Your Juſtice, and by putting into Your Hands the Key of his Kingdom, and the Pride of all his Forts, is intended by Providence, as a Ballance for thoſe ſurprizing Indignities which ſome of Your Allies, and even in Your own Pay, have had the inexcuſable Ingratitude to offer.

May You long enjoy the Fruits of that Peace You are giving to Europe, and in the laſting Remembrances of a preſerved, happy, and thankful People. O Queen! live for ever.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

Antegoa, Auguſt 25. O. S. On the 24th of June, Sir Hovenden Walker arrived here with the Fleet under his Convoy. He ſailed for Jamaica on the 28th, and left Orders for Capt. Hamilton, Commander of the Woolwich, to come down from Barbadoes with all Her Majeſty's Ships there, upon the firſt notice of an Invaſion from the Enemy. On Friday the 4th of July we were alarm'd by a Squadron from Thoulon, conſiſting of ſeven Men of War, beſides a great many Sloops and ſmall Boats, under the Command of Monſieur Caſſart. On the 6th in the Morning they endeavour'd to land at Willoughby Bay and the Mamora, but perceiving ſome Horſe and Foot in a readineſs to receive them, they ſtood off again, having loſt ſome Boats in that Attempt.

Berlin, Octob. 29. N. S. Count Alexander Dhona and the other Commiſſioners appointed to examine into the preſent State of Affairs in Pruſſia, have given his Majeſty an Account of the Damages that Country hath ſuſtained, together with their Opinions of the proper Methods of repairing them; but as they differ very much in their Sentiments, the King is reſolved to go there himſelf in the beginning of the Year, that he may the better judge what Meaſures to take for the Relief of the Country, which hath been very much depopulated by Infectious Diſtempers. Monſieur Brant, Treaſurer of War, hath been for ſome time indiſpoſed, and there being now ſmall hopes of his Recovery, his Majeſty hath ordered his Office to be executed by three Commiſſioners.

Copenhagen, November 1. N. S. The Daniſh Fleet is ſtill in the Gulph of Kiog. Several Maſters of Ships have brought Advice here, that the Swedes uſe all poſſible Diligence to make a ſecond Tranſport, and to that end they are preparing great quantities of Proviſions and Ammunition. His Majeſty's Troops before Wiſmar, are to be reinforced with three Regiments of Horſe; and Lieutenant-General Denitz is to have the Command in chief of the whole Body, which King Auguſtus has deſired may advance towards Damgard, in order to hinder the Swedes from coming into Mecklenburg, as it is ſuppoſed they will do, if they don't meet with Oppoſition to prevent them.

Hanover, November 4. N. S. The Court continues to take the Diverſion of Hunting at Gohre. The Ducheſs of Zell is arrived there from Lunenbourg, the uſual Place of her Reſidence. Letters from Pomerania bring advice, that the Swedes finding it was impoſſible to force their Enemies Entrenchments without expoſing their Troops too much, and alſo endangering Stralſund, General Steinbock had ſent Five thouſand Horſe to bring Proviſions from Mecklenburg. They write from the Daniſh Army near Hamburg, that the Troops had been diſperſed in ſeveral Country Houſes belonging to the Magiſtrates and rich Merchants, and that the City had been obliged to provide Subſiſtance for the Danes, for fear of having their Houſes and Lands deſtroy'd.

Gand, Novemb. 6. N. S. The Duke of Ormond having obtain'd Leave of Her Majeſty to go over to Great Britain, intends to ſet out from hence, in a few Days. Lieutenant General Withers, who was lately ſent by his Grace to that Kingdom, about the Affairs of the Army, left London on the 30th paſt, and arriv'd here on the 1ſt. The Council of State hath order'd the Fiſcal of Flanders to proſecute the News-writer of this Place, for his Inſolence, in having publiſhed ſeveral ſcandalous Falſities relating to the Affairs of England.

Utrecht, Novemb. 8. N. S. The Miniſters of the Proteſtant Princes met at the Lord Privy Seal's Houſe on Thurſday and Saturday laſt, and Yeſterday all thoſe of the Allies held a Conference in the Town-houſe, as uſual. The French Plenipotentiaries have had ſeveral Meetings of late with thoſe of Portugal, at all which the Lord Privy Seal aſſiſted, at the requeſt of both Parties, and this Morning the former diſpatch'd a Courier to their Court, as the Portugueſe will do in the Evening to theirs.

Whitehall, Novemb. 3. His Grace the Duke of Ormond arrived here, this Evening, from Flanders.

Whereas a Letter dated Monday Morning 11 a Clock, and ſubſcribed B. C. hath been ſent by the Penny-Poſt to one of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State: If the Perſon who ſent the ſaid Letter will come to the Office of the Secretary of State, to whom it was directed, and make out what is therein mentioned, he ſhall receive all fitting Encouragement.
